Page 4

A heartwarming scene unfolds on the fourth page of a children's storybook. A large, gentle, long-necked dinosaur with soft, moss-green scales lovingly nuzzles its two adorable baby dinosaurs. One baby is a playful yellow with small brown spots, chasing a colorful butterfly with wide eyes. The other baby, a calm blue with tiny white stripes, sits contentedly near its parent's large foot, chewing on a bright red flower. Lush green ferns and tall, leafy trees create a vibrant prehistoric backdrop under a sunny sky with fluffy white clouds.
